1 CORINTHIANS 13:4-8a

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends.

JEAN DELESANTRO

Graveside service will be held on Saturday, February 17, at 12:00 noon.

The Deacons would like to thank everyone for their contributions to the Deacons last year. They would not have been able to do all they did without your gifts--meals at Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas; homemade soups and breads; and so much more help which is offered.

Please put your name or weekly envelope number on the Deacons envelopes so that the Treasurer will be able to record the gift properly. Thank you.

Prayers of the People

Each week the people of God at APC join in prayers of thanksgiving, praise and petition to pray as one community for needs in the church. Praying for others keeps our focus outward and opens us up to know the will of God in our own lives. Consider making these prayer lists part of your daily prayer life. Doing so, may just help your feelings of isolation. Through prayer, the Holy Spirit brings others, even strangers, closer to you.

Please Keep These Requests In Prayer

The prayer book is on the table in the vestibule by the side entrance to the sanctuary. Please write any requests/praise items you wish to be included in prayer during worship. Keep in mind that Facebook comments and requests read by the minister during worship are being recorded for broadcast and can be heard by the general public worldwide. For the privacy of those you are praying for, consider using just a first name or making your prayer requests general in nature.

- † For victims of gun violence and their families
- † Peace in Ukraine, Middle East and other countries experiencing conflicts.
- † Members of our armed services.
- † For confidence to know that in the struggle, God is with us.
- † For renewed commitment to God's purpose in us all.
- † For us to come together in the bond of self-giving love.
- † For renewed energy in finding our place in God's church,
as people who pray, share and volunteer.
- † For wisdom and discernment when facing the unknown.
- † For God's church to embrace the poor and marginalized, to see God's image and be God's image in this broken world.
- † For a revival in our faith to live boldly for God's Kingdom.
- † For these individuals and families in acute need right now who are connected to your church in Absecon.
- † For those on our standing prayer list and for the needs of your church not listed here, including those intentions held in our hearts and those shared in the comments of Facebook.

Sister Jean's Food & Clothing Pantry

Believe it or not, the otherwise helpful government program SNAP, does not cover these essentials!?!

There is a big demand for dish soap and toilet paper and other cleaning products. They need the sizes for home use, not bulk containers as these are for individuals. Even just grabbing a few items at a dollar store will help. Don't forget dish cloths and sponges... you know, the essentials.

Please help replenish our homemade soups and breads for our shut-in members.

Tips for Healthy Eating on a Budget

Get the biggest nutrition bang for your buck

- Plan out a few meals for the week and make your shopping list based on these ingredients.
- Choose meatless meals. Plant proteins such as beans and tofu are generally more affordable than meats and fish.
- Don't shop on an empty stomach. Munch on a piece of fruit or some nuts before entering the store.
- Allow for flexibility in your shopping list if fresh produce or poultry and fish are on sale, purchase extra quantities and freeze them for later use. Meats, fish, bananas, berries, avocados, broccoli, cauliflower, and corn freeze well.
- Purchase nonperishable foods in bulk. It may cost more up-front to buy "family-sized" products like whole grains, lentils, and dried beans, but the cost per unit is usually cheaper.
- Buy store-brand items. They're generally cheaper because less money is spent on advertising and fancy food labels.
- Use what you have before buying more. Take inventory of all the food in your kitchen twice a month. Bring forward the buried items and plan meals based on these ingredients.

Low cost, nutritious foods:

Proteins

Beans, Peas, Lentils (dried, frozen, canned)
Canned fish (tuna, salmon, sardines)
Lean ground turkey, Chicken thighs (remove the skin)
Peanut butter, Low-fat cottage cheese
Tofu, Eggs

Produce

Leafy greens (kale, collards)
Whole heads of lettuce or cabbage
Broccoli, Radishes, Carrots
Apples, Bananas
Frozen unsweetened fruit
Frozen or canned vegetables (no salt added)

Whole grains and pastas

Store-brand high-fiber cereals (plain shredded wheat, bran)
Whole rolled oats
Whole grains (brown rice, millet, barley, bulgur)
Whole grain pasta

Snacks

Peanuts, Popcorn cooked in an air-popper, String cheese

Beat the Winter Blues

Feeling sad when the weather and seasons change is common. To beat the winter blues, get moving. 20 minutes of activity four times a week has been shown to lift your mood. Get out in the sunlight or brightly lit spaces, especially early in the day. Set your alarm clock and stick to a sleep routine. Try to spend time with family and friends. Eat healthy foods and avoid overloading on sugar and carbohydrates like cookies and candies.

See a mental health professional if sadness doesn't go away or interferes with your daily life. For mental health resources visit www.mhaac.info. If you or someone you know is struggling or having thoughts of suicide, call or text the Suicide and Crisis Lifeline at 988 or chat at 988lifeline.org. In life-threatening situations, call 911.
